

Global vision to local reality - the impact of empowerment

26 August, 2018 | Stockholm, Sweden

ARUP

Mr. Nicolai Schaaf
Policy Coordinator, Swedish Water House, SIWI

ARUP

Local youth creating global impact

Mr. Ryan Hreljac, Founder, Ryan's Well Foundation

How does youth impact global discussions?

Mr. Syed Ahmad Nafisul Abrar, Bangladesh Youth Water Forum

Mr. Julius Kramer, former Research officer, Swedish delegation for the 2030 Agenda

Ms. Katarina Luhr, Vice Mayor, Stockholm City

Mr. Iñigo Ruiz-Apilánez, Senior Consultant, International Development and Sustainable Infrastructures, ARUP

Ms. Maggie White, Manager International Policy & AGWA Co-chair, SIWI

Group exercise

Ms. Cajsa Larsson, Content Manager, World Water Week & Prizes, SIWI

Ms. Kristina Johansson, Programme Officer, Swedish Water House, SIWI

Question 1

On a personal level, how have you influenced or had an impact on the SDGs?

Question 2

How does youth impact global discussions?

Question 3

Which are the main challenges, on an individual as well as societal level, for the inclusiveness of young people?

Outcome mapping

1. On a personal level, how have you influenced or had an impact on the SDGs?
2. How does youth impact global discussions?
3. Which are the main challenges, on an individual as well as societal level, for the inclusiveness of young people?

Thank you!

We hope to see you again later today

11:00-12:30

Global vision to local reality - identifying the pathways
(FH Little Theatre)

14:00-15:30

2018 #WWWeek Debate: Ecosystems vs. human development
(FH 307)

ARUP

