Mastering Disaster in the Anthropocene: Reconciling DRR and Climate Frameworks

A background image of a street scene in Thailand. On the left, a pharmacy with large glass windows displays various products. A sign above the entrance reads 'PHARMACY' and 'โดยเภสัชกร'. In the center, two people are riding a motorcycle. On the right, a food cart with a sign that says 'TIBUO' is visible. The street is paved and appears to be in an urban area.
