

STOCKHOLM
WORLD WATER WEEK
2018

EVENT

Opportunities and Challenges of Localising WASH Humanitarian Assistance

Wednesday, 29 August 2016

09:00 - 10:30

NORA LATIN - NL 357

AGENDA

- 09:00      Welcome, introduction and thematic definitions
Thilo Panzerbieter, Chair German WASH Network
- 09:10      Where are we now? Current status, gaps and challenges of localizing humanitarian aid in the WASH sector
Ajay Paul, Global WASH Cluster - Strategic Advisory Group, Welthungerhilfe
- 09:15      Building strong and resilient country systems: How can SWA contribute to the localisation agenda?
Kelly Ann Naylor, UNICEF Programmes, Chief of WASH
- 09:25      From local to global – Exchanging perspectives on localisation

Linking humanitarian response with development support – Experiences from Ministry of Water and Environment, Uganda
Dr. Callist Tindimugaya, Commissioner for Water Resources Planning and Regulation, Ministry of Water and Environment, Uganda

The JCC of Kurdistan: a model for linking crisis response and institutional capacity building
Hoshang Mohamed, Joint Crisis Coordination Centre of Kurdistan, Iraq
- 09:45      Round table workshop - Identifying practical recommendations, approaches and partnership that can accelerate progress in localising aid

- Mobilising local actors
- Moving forward the Humanitarian and development nexus
- Streamlining donor policies and incentives
- Adapting the SWA framework to be applicable to humanitarian contexts
- 10:15      Reporting back and prioritisation of key recommendations
Table rapporteurs
- 10:25      Event Conclusion and Closure

CONTACT

johannes.rueck@washnet.de www.washnet.de

CONVENER

CO-CONVENER

