

Hanna Woodburn Biography

Hanna Woodburn is the Acting Secretariat Director for the Global Public-Private Partnership for Handwashing, a coalition of international stakeholders who work explicitly to promote handwashing with soap and recognize hygiene as a pillar of international development and child health. Ms. Woodburn is a seasoned coalition builder with a background in public policy and a passion for international development. In addition to spearheading the PPPHW's work on advocacy, she also directs the partnership's communications strategy. Prior to her current role, Ms. Woodburn attended Georgetown University where she earned a M.A. in Communication, Culture, and Technology and an honor's certificate in International Business Diplomacy. She also holds a B.A. in Human Communication from Colorado Christian University.