

Programme Seminar 8
Good water governance for inclusive growth & poverty reduction

Session 2: Successful case studies of good water governance

Wednesday August 31st, 11:00 – 12:30

Chairing: International Water Management Institute (IWMI)

- 11:00 Welcome and aim of the session
Alan Nicol and Diana Suhardiman (IWMI)
- 11:20 Presentations (5' pitch)
Transboundary governance
Dr. Ilya Trombitsky (German Development Institute - DIE)
- 11:25 Engaging The Public in Public - Private collaborative partnerships
Patrick Quinn (McGill University)
- 11:30 Designing water sector governance to meet SDGs, Burkina Faso case
Juste Nansi (IRC)
- 11:35 Determinants of performance of water providers in rural Central America
Dr. Roger Madrigal-Ballesteros (EFD – Initiative)
- 11:40 Identification of underreported high-risk WASH practices using a mobile platform
Dr. Sridhar Vedachalam (Johns Hopkins University)
- 11:45 Round table presentations and workshop on the following themes:
- Transboundary
 - Public-Private Partnerships
 - Financing
 - Performance of providers
 - High risk WASH practices
- 12:15 Main messages from discussion
- 12:20 Summary and wrap-up by moderators