

Serdar Temiz

Serdar Temiz is Chairman of Open Knowledge Sweden and also Open Knowledge Foundation's official representative as an Ambassador in Sweden.

He is also Ph.D. Candidate at Entrepreneurship and Innovation Division of ITM School of KTH- Royal Institute of Technology and part of EIT ICT Labs Doctoral program on ICT Innovation (eitictlabs.eu). His research focuses on value creation with Open Data from the perspective of Open Innovation in relation to entrepreneurship, virtual / mobile platforms and 3D environments.

He is teaching / training/ consulting topics that are related to entrepreneurship, innovation and technology at universities and companies.

He is founder of social entrepreneurship company, ScienceBacker AB, where the company support researchers and people who are interested to research to commercialize their ideas and raise funding for their research.'